Graduate Certificate in Leadership

If you find yourself in a leadership position or would like to boost your resumé, consider a Graduate Certificate in Leadership.

You will learn from a unique perspective at the intersection of faith and leadership. Our faculty teach a leadership philosophy built on biblical ethics and a Christian worldview. You will also develop a professional network and lasting friendships as you interact with professors and other students.

The Graduate Certificate in Leadership is fully transferable toward the completion of the Master of Organizational Leadership (MOL) or Master of Business Administration (MBA), should you want to continue your studies. Students entering the program must already have a Bachelor's degree.

Program Highlights

- Coursework can be completed in under one year
- Flexible online or blended on-site/online format
- Biblically based teaching and discussion
- Leadership training built on biblical ethics and a Christian worldview
- Access to a lifelong professional network

Career Opportunities

With a Graduate Certificate in Leadership, you will be prepared for roles in a variety of settings, such as:

- Churches
- Government offices
- Community organizations
- Nonprofit organizations

Note: Roles in some settings may require additional education or training.
